JOHN MARSHALL Spring 82

HOW IS YOUR JMHS KNOWLEDGE?

So you think you are a know-it-all about John Marshall? How good is your memory? Can you answer the following questions without peeking inside?

1. The years of the first and last classes to graduate in January.
2. The years and sizes of the largest and smallest graduating classes.
3. The name and figure of the 1960's Marshall mascot.
4. Founding year of Marshall's predecessor, the year the name changed from West Park High to John Marshall High, and the year the current building was opened on West 140th Street.
5. Recite the Marshall Alma Mater, both verses, not just the chorus.
6. Name of the school newspaper, name of the literary magazine from the 1930's to 1950's, name of the 1970's literary magazine, name of the early yearbooks, and current yearbook name.

WELCOME to the ALUMNI ASSOC.

Januar and February found Paul Gruber, '69, Alumni Director busy checking the address filing cards with a new alphabetical compute printout.

Approximately 1,500 graduates were inadvertently removed from the mailing list due to incorrect addresses. An equal number were added by telephoning and sending reply cards to brother and sisters and parents. The classes of '78, '80, and '81 added 1,000 more names to bring our total mailing list to over 14,000. Not easy for an all volunteer staff, but we try.

Our mailing list is not accessible to anyone other than qualified reunion committees.

Hope you enjoy our newsletters-sit back and remember the "good old days" when you were at J.M.H.S.

Paul Gruber asks senior aide Cathy Kaspick to look up a grad.

John did commercials for Cotton Club, May's and Halle's in Cleveland before moving to Los Angeles. In L.A. he did commercials for Burger King and Toyota, and was a tour guide for Universal Studios.

He currently stars in the soap opera Texas as the wife-beater, bartender, Billy Joe.

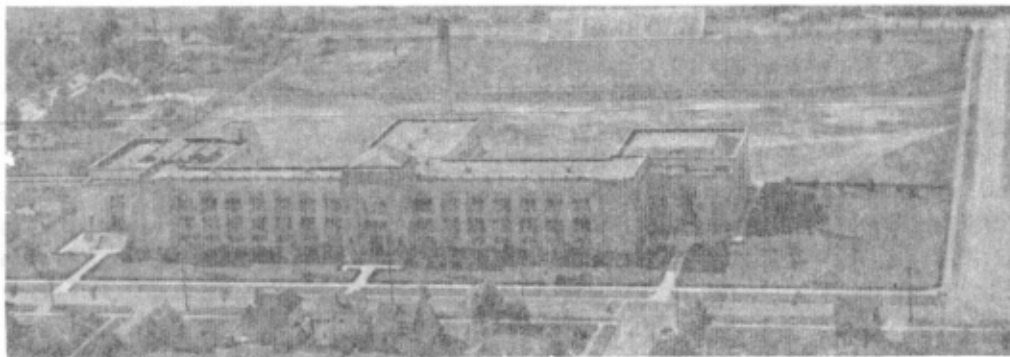

NEEDED

Recent copies of the Cleveland and Western Suburban City Directories are needed to assist our address search.

If you or your business would like to donate a copy, please call us at 252-1110. Donation is tax deductible.

Below: Early John Marshall, note the absence of houses on Viola, West 140th, and behind the school. Also there are no additions to the back of the school.

IN MEMORY

Late March brought the tragic passing of long-time Latin teacher June Eddingfield. She was 95.

Miss Eddingfield began her Marshall career in 1923 and continued at JMHS until her retirement 40 years later.

She had a Masters' from the University of Indiana, and was a member of the Ohio Poetry Society and Phi Beta Kappa.

COMPUTER LISTS

All of our addressing materials have been stored on magnetic tape for an IBM 370-125 computer at Jane Addams Vocational High School.

This system provides us with access to alphabetical and class listings besides labels. A key punch is now in our office for ease in making updates to the tape.

In addition, class officers' addresses, our alumni financial records and donation records are stored on a Radio Shack TRS-80 Model II Business computer in the Alumni Office.

Alma Mater

Ten thousand strong sing we a song, Marshall High to thee,
O worthy art thou of fame.

From near and far, cheering we are, for thy victory.

Beloved is thy glorious name, Beloved is thy glorious name,

Marshall High School, Marshall High School.

(Chorus)

Hail to thee, Marshall High Alma Mater!

O Marshall High forever, Our alma mater dear,

We crown thee fairest high school, thy name we love to hear.

Our teams lead us to victory, we cheer the score along,

O Marshall High, the best school, we praise thee in song.

Both 57 Classes

Bob Timoteo advises grads of both classes to be at the August 7th reunion at Westwood Country Club, Westlake.
